Art—Semester 1, 2017.

Classroom expectations

You are required to turn up to class on time and with the required materials and equipment.

You are expected to attempt all set work to the best of your ability. Be prepared to give anything another go. Take my advice when it is given.

It is your choice—if you decide you are going to waste class time and not get work completed, you will need to make up for it somehow—either at lunch or at home.

You are NOT to waste materials and equipment. Anything that can be recycled, should be.

Use materials and equipment properly—this includes computers, cameras and anything provided for you to make art.

Your workbook should remain neat and in order at all times. You will be directed on what to put where. If you are not sure—ask. All work should be fastened into your visual diary or stored in your plastic pocket.

We will be doing 10 minute warm up tasks at the start of each session. (Twice per week). These will be prepared and placed in your workbook and will be the first thing that you do. They will be complete with instructions.

If you miss a class, you are expected to catch up.

Check lists and workbook checks will be provided for your reference.

The art room is a shared resource, it will be obvious if there is work from other classes left out in the room. Look but do not touch.

Before leaving the room, you will be required to clean up the work areas. Not just where you were working but the whole room. Work together. This includes putting away Visual diaries and plastic pockets NEATLY.

Treat everyone in the room with respect and courtesy.

What to bring to class

You are required to supply the following:

A3 Visual diary

Ruler

Eraser

Set greyleads - HB, 2B, 4B, 6B

Colour pencils

Textas

Black fineliner

Scissors

Glue stick

Should you lose or misplace or 'use up' any of the above, it will be expected to be replaced.

Borrowing causes too many issues.

Laptops

Laptops will be an integral part of the class and once issued will be a valuable tool for the class. Please use responsibly and ensure that you can find my webpage. It will be your first page of reference.
